1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a very important document, as it sets out the President's policy for the new year. The President states that he is proud to be the first President of the United States, and that he is determined to uphold the principles of the Constitution. He also states that he is determined to maintain the Union, and that he is determined to protect the rights of all citizens. The letter is a very eloquent and powerful statement of the President's policy, and it is a document that is still read and studied today.
